I agree to the contest guidelines. I attest that the work I have submitted is my original work and has not been copied in whole or in part from another author's poems, songs or other writing including work posted on the internet or heard from any audio recording or listening device. I certify that my submission is currently unpublished or self-published.

If my writing is chosen as a winner, I agree that the entry remains my property. I allow Mineral Area Council on the Arts to publish the entry on the MACOA website, www.MineralAreaArts.org, and any other MACOA publications as advertisement for the contest, including but not limited to a press release in the Daily Journal.

If my writing is chosen as a winner, I agree to read or choose a delegate to read my winning entry at the public reading on Saturday, October 17, 2020.
